ARMED FORCES RECRUITER ACCESS TO STUDENTS AND RECRUITING INFORMATION

2017-2018 POLICY

- (1) Access to student recruiting information—Notwithstanding section 444(a)(5)(B) of the General Education Provisions Act and except as provided in paragraph 2, each local educational agency receiving assistance under this Act shall provide on request made by military recruiters or an institution of higher education, access to secondary school students names, addresses, and telephone listings.
- (2) Consent - A secondary school student or the parent of the student may request that the student's name, address, and telephone listing as described in paragraph (1), not be released without prior written parental consent, and the local educational agency or private school shall notify parents of the option to make a request and shall comply with any request.
- (3) Same access to students - Each local educational agency receiving assistance under this Act shall provide military recruiters the same access to secondary school students as is provided generally to post-secondary educational institutions or to prospective employers of these students.

A. NOTIFICATION

The secretary, in consultation with the Secretary of Defense, shall not later than 120 days after the date of enactment of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, notify principals, school administrators, and other educators about the requirements of this section.

B. EXCEPTION

The requirements of this section do not apply to a private secondary school that maintains a religious objection to service in the Armed Forces if the objection is verifiable through the corporate or other organizational documents or materials of that school.

I do not want my student's name released to any Armed Forces recruiter for the 2017-2018 school year.
