

AMHS THIS WEEK
October 30-November 3, 2017

From Tim Stewart

Hi All –

After a nerve-wracking competition that went into overtime, the Arlington Middle School team won the 2017 Southern Vermont Regional Team Spelling Bee. Arlington’s team of Lottie Fischer, Emma Hoover, Maria O’Dea and Sarah Tilley, beat out teams from Manchester, Hartland and Orwell. Arlington English teacher Anne Sulzmann coached the winning team and is very proud of them. “The event was incredibly exciting as we went into extra rounds. The girls should be commended for their grace under extreme pressure.”

The team will now compete at the VPA State Team Spelling Competition, November 18.

PARENT TEACHER CONFERENCES

Parent Teacher Conferences are scheduled from 3-7PM, November 8 & 9. First Quarter Report Cards will be available at the Guidance Table. For those new to AMHS, this is a first-come, first-served process with folks waiting their turn. New this year, we emailed out a Sign-Up form for middle school/accelerated families. Meetings are scheduled for approximately 15 minutes—if you need extra time, please make arrangements with your student’s teacher on a separate day.

SOCCER CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

The Varsity Girls will play in the State Championship Game v. Proctor on Saturday, November 4, 1PM, Randolph High School. The Admission Fee is Adults $8, Students $5. We will send a Spectator Bus to the game. Students who want to ride the bus need to give a signed permission form to AD Ashley Hoyt by TODAY at 3PM. The Spectator Bus will depart at 10:30AM on Saturday morning. Community members are welcome to ride the bus—they should email Ashley at hoytas@bvsu.org or call the school at 375.2589 to reserve a seat. There is no charge to ride the bus. We are asking fans to wear WHITE to the game—our HOME Team color—since Proctor will wear maroon—GO EAGLES!
